Subject: Recently disciplined attorneys and updated list

Please see the attached document for a list of currently disciplined practitioners as of February 13, 2017. I would ask each Court Administrator to post this list in a conspicuous place in order to inform the public of the status of these practitioners. This list will be updated as orders are issued by the Board of Immigration Appeals or the Immigration Courts. Names of reinstated practitioners will be removed from the list after 6 months.

The recently disciplined practitioners are:

Shakaira Mollock - On February 10, 2017, the Board issued an order immediately suspending Attorney Mollock based on her disbarment in Maryland for engaging in conduct lacking competence and diligence and conduct that involves dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

Edwin Quartey - On February 10, 2017, the Board issued an order immediately suspending Attorney Quartey based on his 6-month suspension in Maryland for engaging in conduct lacking competence and diligence and conduct that involves dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

Samuel Sarfo - On February 10, 2017, the Board issued an order immediately suspending Attorney Sarfo based on his indefinite suspension in Texas for engaging in conduct lacking competence and diligence.

Thomas A. Stanley - On February 10, 2017, the Board issued a final order suspending Attorney Stanley for 6 months based on his 6-month suspension in California for engaging in conduct lacking competence and failure to cooperate and participate with a state bar disciplinary investigation.

Confidential Discipline - Since the last update, the EOIR Disciplinary Counsel issued confidential discipline to 1 practitioner for the following misconduct: filing an incomplete asylum application with the court.

EOIR's Attorney Discipline Program now has a dedicated e-mail address that EOIR employees may use to report misconduct by private immigration practitioners. The e-mail address is EOIR.AttorneyDiscipline@EOIR.usdoj.gov and appears in the global address list as EOIR Attorney Discipline (EOIR).

Please note that pursuant to Chapter 10.9 of the Immigration Court Practice Manual and Chapter 11.10 of the Board of Immigration Appeals' Practice Manual, a disciplined practitioner is obligated to advise all clients whose cases are pending before the Immigration Court or the Board that he or she has been disciplined. The Immigration Court Practice Manual further states: "Once a practitioner has been expelled or suspended [by an order issued by the Board or an Adjudicating Official,] the practitioner's pending cases are deemed unrepresented. The Immigration Court rejects filings that are submitted by a practitioner after he or she has been expelled or suspended [by an order issued by the Board or an Adjudicating Official.]" (Emphasis added.) The Board's Practice Manual has a similar provision. Therefore, a disciplined practitioner has no authority to make any requests, including motions for continuances, in any of his or her former clients' cases, and the Immigration Courts and the Board do not, and should not, deal with a disciplined practitioner concerning his or her former clients' cases.

Also please note that if a practitioner is suspended or expelled, he or she may resume representation of former clients only after the Board issues an order granting reinstatement. Furthermore, they are then required to enter a new Notice of Entry of Appearance form in each case, even if he or she was the attorney at the time that discipline was imposed. Immigration Court Practice Manual Ch. 10.10(d); Board's Practice Manual Ch. 11.10(b), 11.12(c); EOIR Rules of Professional Conduct, 8 C.F.R. § 1003.107(c).
